

THE MANUAL

The Essential Guide for Men

Hit the Slopes at the Best Ski Towns in the United States

The Ultimate Bar and Barware Gift Guide

STYLE

LIVING

FOOD & DRINK

AUTO

OUTDOORS

MUSIC

Advertisement

Giving Thanks for Sweet Potato Beers

Our Favorite Thanksgiving Wines to Bring to Dinner

Winter is Coming: Where to Experience the Best Winter Safaris

Another great one for pairing with white meat, the apricot, honeysuckle, and pear notes in this Riesling will appeal to those with a slightly sweeter tooth. Sold only at Aldi, this is the best buy on the list, coming in under 10 bucks per bottle. The takeaway here? Stock up by buying a case. \(\$7\)

SPARKLING WINE

Amalia Brut

Thanksgiving wouldn't be complete without some sparkling wine. This dry bubbly from Greece is made from a native Greek variety Moschofilero in the Methode Traditionelle. The wine presents a nose of rose and honey, followed by a fresh, acidic body, making it great on its own or with cheese and seafood. \(\$28\)