Miscellaneous information: The low acidity of the grape variety and the alcohol content of the wine create conditions of intense sweetness; however, the uniqueness of the Liatiko grapes not only excludes the possibility of the wine becoming lifeless, but instead offers a wonderful long pepper aftertaste, which is enhanced by a few robust tannins. Light ruby color adorned with brown reflections as well as a slight cloudiness

Flavor of the wine: reminding of an explosive, dense bouquet of dried fruits and flowers, thrumbi, cocoa, wild plum marmalade and ripe peach.

Food/wine pairing: It is combined with rich red roasted meats and exquisite game.
